MR. M. K. NILAKANTA AIYAR : The labour involved in the preparation of the lists would be incommensurate with the possible benefits derivable therefrom.

Public Service Recruitment Scheme.

24. MR. K. KUNJU PANICKAR: Will the Government be pleased to state :

(a) whether the public service recruitment scheme was not to have come into force at first on 25th June 1935 ;

(b) whether it came into force on that date ;

(c) if not, when it came into force ;

(d) whether there was a circular of October 1936 to give exemption to acting hands of unbroken service up to 1-2-1112, besides those exempted first by the 3 years' rule (i. e., Rule 20)

(e) whether there were other circulars to further exempt the acting hands who entered service before October 1935 and who continued to act up to 1-5-1112 and up to 1-11-1112 ; and

(f) what were the dates and what was the exact wording of the circulars following the granting of exemption from the first Public Service Recruitment Rules ?

DR. G. D. NOKES : (a) No.

(b) In view of answer to part (a) this does not arise.

(c) The Public Service Recruitment Rules (except rule 11) came into force on 1st Mithunam 1111 and rule 11 came into force on 1st Kanni 1112.

(d), (e) and (f) The member is referred to Part VI of the Public Service Recruitment Rules and the first list of Addenda to the Travancore Service Recruitment Manual.

Statement, by caste, of acting hands.

25. MR. K. KUNJU PANICKAR : Will the Government be pleased to place on the table the following facts :

(a) a list, by caste, of acting hands who were acting for more than 3 years on 25th June 1935 with break and who were superseded by acting hands with exemption up to 1-2-1112, up to 1-5-1112 and up to 1-11-1112 ; and

(b) a list, by caste, of acting hands who were benefited by exemption up to 1-2-1112, up to 1-5-1112 and up to 1-11-1112 ?

DR. G. D. NOKES : (a) and (b). The question is vague since the meaning of the expression 'superseded by acting hands with exemption' is not clear.

District Courts at Kottayam.

26. MR. K. KUNJU PANICKAR : Will the Government be pleased to state whether they have decided to shift the District Courts at Kottayam to Vayaskarakkunnu buildings ?

MR. PUTHUPALLI S. KRISHNA PILLAI : No.
